Cantores is proud to present

Philip van Wilder Complete Sacred Music

Toccata Classics TOCC0198, released Oct 2013

‘The whole disc is a triumph – fine performances of superb music ... so enjoyable and rewarding’
– Richard Turbet, musicologist

Philip van Wilder (c.1500–54) was a Dutch lutenist and composer who became Henry VIII’s favourite musician, and yet he has passed almost unnoticed from musical history. This recording presents his complete surviving sacred music and some of his chansons, setting him in historical context: downstream from Josquin and Gombert, collaborating with Tallis and a formative influence on Byrd.

Buy directly from us – that way, all proceeds go to choir funds, supporting our future performing and recording activities (we receive nothing from shop and online sales).

Prices: For one disc: £13.00 (including postage and packing);
For each subsequent disc, add £10 (including p&p) [e.g.: three discs = £33.00]
